BY DEPUTY

KYLE LYDELL CANTY
Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:16-cv-01655-
RAJ-JPD

VS.

CITY OF SEATTLE et al
Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION PURSUANT TO "ACCESS TO THE LAW" INTENTIONAL
REFUSAL ON THE
BEHALF OF THE
WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF
CORRECTIONS
"ORAL ARGUMENT REQUESTED"
NOTE ON CALENDAR
EMERGENCY MOTION

COMES NOW, the Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty
In Propria Persona, and of Sui Juris

On this 30th day of August year 2017, hereby moves and serves this Court with this motion Pursuant to "Access To THE Law" (INTENTIONAL REFUSAL); Also Pursuant to Common Law, Rule of Law, United States Constitutional Law, Fed Civ P, and United States Code "U.S.C."

Statement of issues

- (1) For reasons that are unclear the Washington State Department of Corrections by way of WCC/Shelton Correctional facility has intentionally and repeatedly refused the Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty "Access To THE Law", Thus violating their own policies, rules, procedures and Code Pursuant to WCC 590.500?
- (2) For reasons that are unclear the Washington State Department of Corrections legal person for this facility has not responded back to the Plaintiff at all? apparently this legal person at

- this facility is named John Thompson?
- (3) For reasons that are unclear the Washington State Department of Corrections are training their Correctional facilities such as Shelton/WCC to only permit access to a outdated but somewhat of use legal Computer only once or maybe twice if you're worthy?
- (4) Should the Washington State Department of Corrections be allowed to refuse, pick and choose, put inmates on paper restrictions when it comes down to legal access to the Law?

Evidence relied upon

Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty rely upon a copy with tracking number to the official grievance that he submitted to The WCC grievance Coordinator "J. Watson" is his name (Attached is Exhibit 65) Titled "Emergency legal Law library Access request Permanent"

The Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty also rely on a letter Signed and dated by the grievance Coordinator himself J. Watson Claiming that Plaintiff and inmate has Committed grievance abuse With a threat of a infraction his Words not MR. Canty's (Attached is Exhibit 66)

Relief Requested

The Plaintiff Kyle Lydell Canty hereby respectfully requests a Writ to be Signed for Unlimited Access to the law, Paper, envelopes, law books, his own law book and other legal Supplies that Were transferred over to the Washington State Department of Corrections from King County Correctional facility

Law And Argument

Has the Supreme Courts made it Clear that no inmate in the United States of America is to be denied/refused Access to Law? Has the Federal Courts of the United States made it Crystal Clear that No inmate is to be denied/refused Access to the Law? Has the United States Constitution, United States Code "U.S.C.", Federal Acts or Law, and Common Law made it Clear that no inmate is to be denied/refused Access to the Law? Why is the State of Washington Department of Corrections able to get away with this?

Conclusion

The Plaintiff has Submitted to the United States District Court Western District of Washington earlier this week "A Motion for Appointment of Counsel" for these Same reasons Plus more.

EXhibit 66

To: Inmate Canty, Kyle 401358

From: J. Watson, WCC Grievance Coordinator

SUBJECT: GRIEVANCE ABUSE BY QUANTITY

Seven complaints were picked up from you on 08/29/17. Two complaints already existed and these had been returned to you for rewrite requiring more information. Of the new complaints two were dated 08/25/2017, three dated 08/27/17 and two dated 08/28/17. With these new complaints this puts you at 9 Offender Complaints.

According to page 26 of the Offender Grievance Program Manual:

Offenders may not submit more than five (5) new complaints per calendar week or have more than five (5) ACTIVE grievances and/or appeals. If an offender exceeds these limits, the Grievance Coordinator will return all materials, explain that the offender is over the limit and list all active log ID numbers. Offenders may not withdraw more than five (5) formal grievances/appeals per year in order to initiate new grievances. If an offender exceeds any of these limits, he or she may receive corrective action.

First violation

The Grievance Coordinator will issue a written warning documenting the abuse and stating that subsequent violations may result in the offender being issued an infraction for interfering with the duties of staff.

Second and subsequent violations

The Grievance Coordinator may submit objective documentation to the Superintendent/Work Release Supervisor and request to infract the offender for interfering with the duties of staff.

This is your written warning. If you continue to commit grievance abuse by quantity, I will infract you. You will not be permitted to pursue more than five grievances at a time, at any level of review. Furthermore, if you submit more than five in a week, I will return ALL of them without investigation until you limit grievance activity in accordance with the OGP.
